Water scarcity

Water

For centuries water covered the globe and gave life to any living thing.
But now, today
Water is thirsty
Thirsty to our attention.

We need to SAVE the water

Water

Water is not just ours, it belongs to every creature on earth, it belongs to future generations. We are responsible for them.

And now Water is highly sensitive to our usage habits.

We need to SAVE the water

Or we will lose it forever.

PEX Hose

Made from high-performance PEX, this hose is thermally stable, neutral in taste and odor, and resistant to water discoloration—ensuring a consistently clean and safe water flow.

Easy Installation

Designed for convenience, this product requires no specialized tools or technical expertise for installation.

Ceramic Cartridge

Equipped with a high-durability Citec ceramic cartridge that ensures smooth operation, prevents leaks, and delivers long-lasting performance even under frequent use.

NEOPERL Aerator

An advanced aerator that blends air with water to significantly reduce water consumption without compromising pressure—offering up to 50–75% savings in water usage.

Advanced Engineering for Efficient Use

Optimized Flow & Pressure: Provides a consistent water stream while minimizing waste.

PEX Hose Durability: Withstands high temperatures and pressure without deformation or contamination.

Low-Lead Brass Alloy: Manufactured with one of the lowest lead content ratios on the market—well below global safety standards.

ELECTRIC TOWEL RACK

The geometric form shuttles and extends in the space, making the vision produce wonderful effects, jumping like musical notes, and the simple space is no longer simple...

MINIMALISTIC DESIGN

The origin of minimalist design is high quality life and rich cultural background. because of the simplicity of people, the products designed also deduce different visual enjoyment according to the geometric lines in the natural environment.

The bathroom becomes the modulator of the mood, the collocation of omni-directional product, the perfect fusion of function and artistic feeling, and the structure help to provide the life function with carving aesthetic feeling continuously, embellishing the customer with uncommon savour of life.
